Come join us in the Eucharistic Procession for the Solemnity of Corpus Christi on Sunday, June 22nd from 12:15 to 1:15 pm at Lake Lillian, Belleview.

This procession is an extension of the worship of Jesus Christ, truly present in the Blessed Sacrament. In the Eucharistic Procession, the missionary aspect of the Eucharist is emphasized as we go forth into the world. Not only gazing upon our Eucharistic Lord, but walking with him, we experience what the disciples did 2000 years ago as they walked with Jesus, proclaiming the good news to the world.

By this public witness of faith, let us invite people in the community to encounter the Risen Lord present in the Eucharistic Host. For those who participate in the procession, it is an opportunity not only to proclaim their faith but also to grow in their faith. The procession is, finally, an invitation to Jesus himself to be a part of our daily lives, to be immersed in the world in which we live.

NOVENA PRAYER: O most holy Heart of Jesus, fountain of every blessing, I adore you, I love you, and with a lively sorrow for my sins, I offer you this poor heart of mine.

*Make me humble, patient, pure, and wholly obedient to your will.
Grant, good Jesus, that I may live in you and for you.*

Protect me in the midst of danger, comfort me in my afflictions, give me health of body, assistance in my temporal needs, your blessing on all that I do, and the grace of a holy death. Amen.

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ Give Them Some Food Yourself

The Gospel for this feast reminds me of what my aunt used to tell us when we would visit her and share a meal. Her favorite saying was, “If you don’t get enough to eat, it’s your own fault.” Perhaps Jesus would say the same as he feeds us with his Body and Blood.

Some say that the multiplication of loaves was not done by breaking the laws of physics. Instead, they say that Jesus, when he began to share the little bread that he had, touched the hearts of all those who had brought food with them. They followed his example by sharing their food also—so much that there were twelve baskets left over.

Jesus came to change people’s hearts, to show them God’s love and how to love one another. The miracle of changing bread and wine into his Body and Blood is not just so we can feel good about having Jesus so near to us. It is meant to strengthen us to do our best as his disciples. As food and drink help us to keep on working, his Body and Blood help us to keep on loving.

When the disciples told Jesus about the hungry crowd, he told them, “Give them some food yourselves” (Luke 9:13). And one day they would. When they celebrated the Eucharist after Jesus’ resurrection, they gave that spiritual food to the new followers of Christ. We continue that today. With Jesus’ strength we can teach all people about the Father’s love for them and how they can love each other. —Tom Schmidt—Copyright © Diocesan Publications

My Take

The other day, a glass slipped through my fingers and shattered on the floor. Fortunately, I was wearing shoes so as I moved around the shattered glass, I didn't step on any. I quickly tried to sweep up all the pieces before my husband, Tom, or my cat, Pendragon, stepped on any. I hate when you think you've found it all and then later that day or the next, you step on a small piece and for a minute you're in a bit of discomfort.

I think life is a lot like this. Sometimes, your life gets shattered by the loss of a job or a home, a divorce or the death of a loved one. Just like shattered glass, try as you might, you can never put life back into place quite the same. Somedays you may feel as if you have, but it just takes one step, onto a missed piece of glass or forgotten memory, to bring the pain and heartbreak back into focus.

In your pain, remember that God is still beside you. Having difficult days helps us to remember God's grace and love. It may help you also to understand that God's plans reach far beyond what we imagine our life is or should be. Your pain could be the thing that draws you into a closer relationship with God and others in the same situation. Take your broken glass to God and trust him to heal you. "God heals the wounds of every shattered heart." Psalm 147:3

Mi opinión

El otro día, un vaso se me escapó de las manos y se hizo añicos en el suelo. Por suerte, llevaba zapatos, así que al moverme entre los cristales rotos, no pisé ninguno. Rápidamente intenté recoger todos los pedazos antes de que mi marido, Tom, o mi gato, Pendragon, pisaran alguno. Odio cuando crees que lo has encontrado todo y luego, más tarde ese mismo día o al siguiente, pisas un trocito y, por un minuto, te sientes un poco incómodo.

Creo que la vida es muy parecida a esto. A veces, la vida se hace añicos por la pérdida de un trabajo o una casa, un divorcio o la muerte de un ser querido. Al igual que con los cristales rotos, por mucho que lo intentes, nunca podrás volver a poner la vida en su sitio. Algunos días puedes sentir que sí, pero solo hace falta un paso, sobre un trozo de cristal perdido o un recuerdo olvidado, para volver a centrar la atención en el dolor y la angustia.

En tu dolor, recuerda que Dios sigue a tu lado. Los días difíciles nos ayudan a recordar la gracia y el amor de Dios. También podría ayudarte comprender que los planes de Dios van mucho más allá de lo que imaginamos que es o debería ser nuestra vida. Tu dolor podría ser lo que te acerque a una relación más cercana con Dios y con otras personas en la misma situación. Lleva tu vaso roto a Dios y confía en que él te sanará. «Dios sana las heridas de todo corazón destrozado». Salmo 147:3
